MISSION OF LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University, dedicated in the traditions of the Christian Brothers to excellence in teaching and to concern for both ultimate values and for the individual values of its students, is a private Roman Catholic university committed to providing a liberal education of both general and specialized studies.

MISSION OF LA SALLE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS

La Salle University is a Roman Catholic institution of higher education with traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. In that framework, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation of La Salle University is committed to both the spirit and principles set forth by NCAA, Atlantic 10 Conference, Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and La Salle University regulatory guidelines. La Salle University is dedicated to the fair and equitable treatment of all students and staff.

The Athletic Department, through its intramural and intercollegiate programs, enables and encourages all students to participate in a wide variety of sports at many levels of competition. Values such as leadership, diligence, determination, and teamwork are emphasized. Good sportsmanship from its athletes and fans are supported.

The University strives to operate its athletic programs within the confines of a fiscally sound plan at a level of intercollegiate competition that is consistent with its philosophical objectives.

La Salle University seeks to join other institutions with the like commitments to institutional integrity, academic excellence, and to service to the community.

WHY WE ARE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game on campus in the early 1930's. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America. In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

PHILADELPHIA

WACHOVIA CENTER

The second largest city on the East Coast and the fifth largest in the nation, Philadelphia has retained its neighborhood spirit while supporting a metropolitan population of 5.7 million. The cradle of democracy, Philadelphia is home to the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall, where our country first took shape and our forefathers wrote the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution. Center City boasts hundreds of galleries featuring the latest in painting, sculpture, photography and video art, including the world-renowned Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Barnes Foundation.

Philadelphia also supports the nation's largest and most developed city park system (Fairmount Park) that offers 8,700 acres of trees and trails winding the length of the city. Center City's South Street, Boathouse Row along the Schuylkill River, the Delaware Waterfront and Manayunk, a canal neighborhood with some of the best shops and restaurants in the tri-state area, are also unique to the city.

LA SALLE

A COMPREHENSIVE UNIVERSITY OF INCREASING NATIONAL PROMINENCE

GROWING WITH OUR COMMUNITY

La Salle announced a multimillion-dollar public/private neighborhood revitalization and renewal effort. This includes the development of a much-needed, full-service supermarket and other retail shops on our Good Shepherd property. The project has the support of local officials and community groups.

La Salle has renovated its campus recreational areas by installing artificial turf on Hank DeVincent Field and McCarthy Stadium, and lights have been added to the stadium.

WE WALK THE WALK!

La Salle placed second among the Atlantic 10 schools with 120 student-athletes selected to both the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll and MAAC Honor Roll.

NATIONALLY RANKED

La Salle is ranked among the top 20 universities and top 10 Catholic universities in its category by U.S. News and World Report's "America's Best Colleges." The category—Universities: Master's Northern Region—is comprised of 165 schools, 42 of which are Catholic. Rankings are based upon academic reputation, selectivity, faculty resources, financial resources, retention, and alumni giving.

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

MEDIA INFORMATION

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

WE ARE LA SALLE

The student-led "I Am La Salle" campaign that inspired The Affirmation was honored as "Program of the Year" by the Central Atlantic Affiliates of College and University Residence Halls, of which our Resident Student Association is a member.

Twelve La Salle University Communication majors were selected to work as NBC interns for the 2006 Winter Olympics in Torino, Italy. Only six universities nationwide were invited to participate in the NBC internship program.

LEADING BY EXAMPLE

Eighty percent of La Salle's student-athletes volunteered for a total of 3,600 hours of service. Project Teamwork—which matches dozens of students from Emlen Elementary School and Logan Elementary School with Big Brothers and Big Sisters from La Salle—was honored for the fifth consecutive year by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for its community service and youth outreach program.

THE PLACE TO BE

Applications for admission to the University—undergraduate and graduate—totaled 9,182, the largest in our history. Total applications have increased 93 percent in the last eight years.

La Salle enrolled students from 34 states and 24 countries.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

As reported by the NCAA, La Salle has a graduation rate of 93 percent for our student-athletes. This exceeds the average rate of 85 percent for Division I schools.

WHAT IS ACADEMIC SUPPORT?

The Academic Support Services for Student Athletes is designed to assist student-athletes throughout their studies at La Salle University. Initially, the primary goal is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the collegiate environment and to help them better understand the academic and athletic demands they will encounter. Through educational programming, advising, counseling and other support services, La Salle student-athletes are encouraged and supported in their pursuit of personal, academic, career, and athletic goals. La Salle student-athletes are encouraged to be actively involved in their educational process as the balance of academic achievement is fostered.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- To provide a program and environment in which student-athletes can become efficient students.
- To maximize the academic and athletic potential of student-athletes.
- To provide the means by which student-athletes can accept full responsibility for their educational planning.
- To assist student-athletes in their progress toward graduation, which includes the use of tutors and study hall.
- To assist student-athletes in balancing and managing the demands of participating in intercollegiate athletics with assistance in scheduling for minimal missed class time.
- To inform student-athletes of policies, rules and regulations established by the University, athletic department and the NCAA.

PROJECT TEAMWORK The La Salle Athletic Department upholds the University's mission of service through Project TeamWork. Project TeamWork is a youth outreach and community service project sponsored by La Salle University's Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. Project TeamWork utilizes La Salle student-athletes and coaches as mentors and role models to youth who need academic, social, and/or emotional support. Student-athletes must meet program criteria and have an interest in helping children in the local community. Student-athletes also volunteer their time to tutor area youth in cooperation with the La Salle Mentoring Program. For four straight years Project Teamwork has been recognized for excellence by the National Consortium for Athletics and Society.

Project TeamWork programs include:

Campus Visitations - Campus visits are arranged to bring youth to the La Salle campus to experience college life and to make educational attainment a goal.

Clinics and Workshops - Many athletic teams sponsor or participate in clinics which teach techniques and principles of their sport.

Explorer Kids - Corporate and individual levels of sponsorship allow children to attend athletic events and be recognized for their accomplishments.

Adopt-A-School - La Salle teams and student-athletes have adopted Logan Elementary School in nearby Olney. Student-athletes work directly with students, serving as mentors and tutors.

La Salle University Women's Basketball welcomed its seventh head coach in the program's history on August 30, 2004, when Tom Lochner was appointed to lead the team starting in the 2004-05 season. This season, Lochner will be coaching in his 20th season at the school overall, his third as head coach.

He will be looking to improve upon the success his team achieved at the beginning of the 2006 Atlantic 10 slate. La Salle went 7-1 in the month of January, the most wins in one month in more than a decade and started the conference 6-1, which vaulted them to the top of the A-10 standings for the first time in school history (Jan. 23). However, health and injury problems late hurt the team and they finished the season 11-17, 7-9 in the conference.

In his first year as head coach, Lochner guided the Explorers to a 12-16 record (6-10 A-10), which included their first win over George Washington, an NCAA qualifier, in 24 years, and a 9-5 record at home.

The journey for Lochner at La Salle began when he joined the Explorers coaching staff in 1987 serving as a volunteer assistant for two seasons. After gaining full-time coaching status in 1989, he remained as an assistant coach until the 1998-99 season, when he was promoted to associate head coach.

He has been involved in all aspects of the Explorers program during his career at the school, which included serving as recruiting coordinator, and overseeing the skill development of both the guards and the post players. Lochner has been extensively involved in game coaching, scouting, daily practice and pregame preparations throughout his previous 19 years. He also worked with the academic support staff regarding student-athlete progress.

During his 17 years at La Salle University prior to his head coaching stint, Lochner had been part of 296 La Salle victories (296-196 overall). He had also been with the team for two NCAA Tournament appearances, one WNIT Tournament appearance, three conference titles, four Big 5 titles, and five 20-win seasons.

In addition to coaching at the high school and college levels, Lochner has extensive summer camp experience, teaching basketball fundamentals to young athletes. He is also actively involved in alumni and booster fundraising activities.

Lochner holds two degrees from Temple University, a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education (1989) and an ED.M in Sports Management (1997). He also earned a Master's of Education from La Salle in 2006.

Lochner, wife Beth, son Curtis, and daughter Samantha, reside in Willow Grove, PA.

—COACH LOCHNER

Head Coach Tom Lochner welcomed back Chrissie (Donahue) Doogan to the La Salle University Women's Basketball coaching staff to start the 2004-05 season and in August 2005, she was promoted to Associate Head Coach. Doogan, a La Salle alumnae (1997), served as an assistant for the Explorers for five years before a two-year stint with Cornell University.

This will be Doogan's 12th season associated with La Salle Basketball, which includes four years as a player and her eighth as a coach, and this is her 10th season coaching overall. For Lochner, Doogan is the recruiting coordinator and the primary handler for the skill development of the forwards.

Doogan is one of the top players ever to wear an Explorer jersey, ending her career as the school's second-leading scorer with 1,818 career points and third-leading rebounder with 914. Doogan led the team in scoring and rebounds her sophomore, junior and senior seasons. In 2003, she was inducted into the La Salle Hall of Athletes.

She was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year in 1995 and the Rookie of the Year in 1994. She was a First Team All-Big 5 member in her final three seasons at La Salle, and was named Second Team All-Big 5 as a freshman. Her outstanding career in the Big 5 earned her a spot in the Hall of Fame in 2002. Just last year, Doogan was named one of the top 25 players in the history of the Big 5.

In her four-year career at La Salle, Doogan never missed a postseason all-conference team. As a freshman and sophomore, she was named to the MCC All-Conference teams in 1994 (third) and 1995 (second). In the fall of 1995, the Explorers joined the Atlantic 10 Conference, and in her final two seasons Doogan was named to the A-10 All-Conference teams in 1996 (second) and 1997 (first).

After leading her team to a pair of 20-win seasons, Doogan stayed with the La Salle program as an assistant coach following her graduation in 1997 and held that position for five seasons. Doogan was responsible for the development of the Explorers' post players, as well as all aspects of scouting and team fundraising.

Doogan now resides with her husband Pat and their daughter Maggie in Drexel Hill.

Assistant Coach
MIMI RILEY

Mimi Riley enters her fourth season on the sidelines at La Salle University as an assistant coach. Riley assists with recruiting and scouting as well as planning practices. She will spearhead all travel coordinating and community service projects as well as guard skill development.

Riley comes to La Salle after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Georgetown. Riley was familiar with the Georgetown program after playing for BIG EAST-rival Villanova. Her coaching duties for the Hoyas included scouting, recruiting, individual player instruction, coaching the guards and travel arrangements.

Riley graduated from Villanova in May of 2002 with a degree in communications. She helped lead Villanova to two straight NCAA Tournament appearances (2001 and 2002), while playing for the Wildcats from 1997-2002.

She was the Wildcats' starting point guard both her junior and senior seasons and was a 2002 First Team Philadelphia All-Big 5 selection. Riley ended her final season averaging 12.3 points per game and a team-high 4.6 assists. She was named a 2002 BIG EAST Honorable Mention and was awarded the 2002 BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

During her four-year career Riley amassed 862 points, 416 assists and 356 rebounds in 117 games. Her 416 assists placed her sixth all-time in the Wildcat record books.

A Philadelphia-area product, Riley is from Bala Cynwyd, PA and attended Archbishop Carroll High School.

—COACH LOCHNER

Stacey Smalls enters her second season on the bench for the La Salle University Basketball Program. Her duties at La Salle include developing the guards, being in charge of tape exchange and assisting with recruiting.

Smalls is a 2003 graduate of Temple University where she was a four-year member of the basketball team under Head Coach Dawn Staley. During her playing career at Temple, Smalls finished her four-year career as the sixth all-time leading scorer and is the only Owl to score more than 1,000 points and lead the team in assists in four straight seasons.

While at Temple, Smalls scored 1,258 points, while dishing out 360 assists and amassing 187 steals. In 2002, she led the Owls to their first Atlantic 10 Championship title and was named the tournament's MVP. Her other postseason accolades include A-10 Most Improved Player in 2001, A-10 Second Team and Defensive Team Member in 2001, 2002, and 2003, and First Team Philadelphia Big 5 in 2002 and 2003.

Outside of her playing for the Owls, Smalls worked basketball camps at both Temple University and at Norristown High School. She also interned at both the Dawn Staley Foundation and Staley 5, where she helped organize basketball clinics and aided in the development of a girls summer league.

Smalls has professional basketball experience, having played for the Birmingham Power of the National Women's Basketball League. During her tenure with the Power, she led the team in minutes played and assists as the starting point guard.

Since the beginning of her collegiate career at Temple, Smalls has been very active in the community and worked closely with children at basketball camps and most recently as a case manager for the Philadelphia Youth Services Agency.

Smalls resides in Cheltenham, PA and attended Cheltenham High School.

La Salle Women's BASKETBALL STAFFMEGHAN CAROLAN*DIRECTOR OF WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

In August 2006, the La Salle University Women's Basketball team announced the appointment of Meghan Carolan to the position of Director of Women's Basketball Operations.

Carolan comes to La Salle from Villanova University, where she served a dual role as equipment assistant for the athletics program and an assistant coach for the women's lacrosse team, which she began in 2004.

As an undergraduate at Villanova from 1999-2003, Carolan was a four-year member of the women's lacrosse team. She was a three-time selection to the First Team All-Patriot League (2001-2003), and was named a Second Team Regional All-American in 2001.

A 2003 graduate of Villanova, Carolan earned her Bachelor's of Arts in history and earned minors in business and education. Most recently, she earned a Master's of Education in sport and recreation administration from Temple University, completing her degree in May 2006.

Carolan's primary role as Director of Women's Basketball Operations, will be to oversee administrative duties, including marketing, promotions, coordinating facility use, and game-day operations.

SISTER EILEEN MCGOWAN*TEAM MODERATOR

Sister Eileen McGowan, a Sister of Mercy, served as a campus minister for five years at La Salle University and is now teaching in the Religion Department. Before coming to La Salle, McGowan worked as a Campus Minister at Catholic University in Washington, DC for seven years (1993-2000). While at Catholic, she continued her education in Theology.

Before her post-graduate work at Catholic, she taught Theology at Chestnut Hill College from 1991-93 and was the Director of Religious Education in North Philadelphia from 1982-1991 for St. Stephen's and St. Henry's Parishes. McGowan also taught at several different parochial grade schools after earning her degree.

A 1976 graduate of Gwynedd Mercy, McGowan earned a Bachelor's of Arts in Education and went on to earn two masters degrees. She has an MA in Religious Studies from Villanova University (1987) and an MA in Bilingual Bicultural Education from Marywood College (1985).

Over the years along with being involved with the women's basketball program at La Salle, Sister Eileen was the moderator of the Gamma Sigma service sorority. While a campus minister, she also served on many university committees, including the Health Advisory Committee, the Student Affairs Staff Development Committee, and the Middle States Committee on Integrity.

RAQUEL MENOCAL*TEAM MANAGER

Raquel Menocal is entering her third season as the La Salle Women's Basketball team manager. Currently a junior at La Salle, Menocal is pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in biology.

2005-06 REVIEW

2006-07 OPPONENTS

RECORD BOOK

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

MEDIA INFORMATION

2005-06 YEAR IN REVIEW

The 2005-06 Explorers performed at a very high level for much of the season. After starting the season with a win in the Image Depot Shootout in Tampa, Florida and holding a 3-4 record, La Salle embarked on a tough three-game stretch. It included a one-point loss to Villanova, a 13-point defeat at the hands of 19th-ranked Vanderbilt, and a three-point loss to undefeated Kansas. Those three teams were a combined 24-5 at the time La Salle faced them.

The calendar changed to January and the team turned its attention to the Atlantic 10 Conference slate. La Salle opened the season with road wins at Rhode Island and Richmond, its first-ever victory at the Robins Center, which was won on a 15-foot jumper by sophomore Carlene Hightower with just 3.7 seconds left in the game.

A 66-64 overtime loss to 23rd-ranked Temple at Tom Gola Arena did not derail the Explorers run at reaching the top of the conference standings. When they defeated Saint Joseph's on January 23, La Salle stood at 6-1 and in first place of the A-10 for the first time ever in the history of the program. Two days later, the Explorers defeated Penn, running their winning streak to five straight and improving its record to 10-8 overall. They finished the month of January with seven wins, the most in any month in almost a decade.

However, La Salle faltered down the stretch due to health and injury problems and finished the season 11-17, 7-9 in the conference and the Spiders avenged the earlier loss by knocking out the Explorers in the first round of the A-10 Tournament for only the third time in 11 years.

With the successful start to the season, postseason accolades poured in, most notably was Hightower's selection as the A-10 and Big 5 Most Improved Player award. Her break-out season included starting in every game, and scoring 11.3 points and grabbing 6.6 boards per game, up from 3.1 and 2.9 in her freshman campaign. She recorded three double-doubles and scored 20+ in two games.

Junior Crista Ricketts was honored for a third time by the A-10 and Big 5 with a selection to the First Team for both. She scored 13.8 points a game and grabbed 6.4 boards. She also had five games of 20+ points and registered five double-doubles, while becoming the second fastest Explorer to reach 1,000 points in her career.

Another player who surpassed the 1,000-point plateau in the season was Davineia Payne, who left the school 12th on the all-time scoring list (1,214) and finished her career in the top 10 in five categories. She became only the second player in school history with more than 1,200 points, 600 rebounds and 250 assists, as she started and played in every game of her La Salle career (113). She was named to the A-10 and Big 5 Second Teams.

Other accomplishments achieved by the 2005-06 squad was junior Jenna Graber finishing sixth in the nation (first in the A-10) in shooting percentage from behind the arc (45.1%), and was 25th in made three pointers per game (2.6). Graber set a single season record for made threes at the school with 74 and helped La Salle finish seventh in the country in three-point field goal percentage (39.1%).

Senior Shaune McLaughlin was also among the nation's best, finishing 22nd in the country in Free Throw Percentage, as she also led the conference. She converted 86.4% of her foul shots, which tied her for the sixth-best mark in a season at La Salle. The Explorers also finished second in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (12.5) and also led the A-10 in assist to turnover ration (1.05).

They also almost pulled off a feat that has not been seen at the school in more than 20 years. All five starters scored more than 240 points, which had not been done since the 1996-97 season, and if all would have hit at least the 250-point mark – Graber was six shy – it would have been the first time since the 1984-85 season that five players scored at least 250 points in the same season.

The Philadelphia Big 5 A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administration at the five major Universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at the Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out Rocky Balboa to be named the City's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News!

In a city that is passionate about their sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,700 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra... it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series... it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business... it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when they get thrown into their first City Series game... it's student athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 - the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation work. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. In doing so, the Atlantic 10, under the leadership of commissioner Linda Bruno, instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better. The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors one student-athlete per sport as the A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. A male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, which encompasses all A-10 sports, is also named. The Atlantic 10 also provides postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of nearly 73 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

GAME 1 - NOVEMBER 19, 2005

USF SUN DOME - TAMPA, FL

In its first trip to the state of Florida since 1997, the La Salle Explorers defeated Tennessee-Martin, 72-55, in the first game of the Image Depot Shootout, which ran the Explorers record in season openers to 30-4.

Junior Crista Ricketts and senior Davineia Payne proved why they were selected to the preseason All-Atlantic 10 teams. The pair combined for 35 points and 15 rebounds, while senior Shaune McLaughlin recorded a career-high in assists, dishing out 14.

Ricketts tied a career-high with 26 points on 12-of-17 shooting from the floor. It was her 14th career game with more than 20 points, her 43rd game over 10 (in 54 games), and the 12 field goals made is a career-best.

Payne came close to recording her 12 double-double of her career with a nine-point, eight-rebound performance in the victory, while McLaughlin, whose previous high for assists in a game was eight at Providence (12/22/04), had as many by halftime.

The Explorers started the game on an 8-0 run, which included two fast-break lay-ups by Carlene Hightower, and held the Skyhawks scoreless for the first four minutes. Hightower ended the game with 14 points.

Tennessee-Martin (0-1) would make its own run over the next two minutes, cutting their deficit to one at 8-7, but back-to-back baskets by Payne pushed the Explorer lead back to five and the Skyhawks would never get closer than three.

The Skyhawks were led by Andreika Jackson, who scored 13 points, and Deina Willingham, who had 11 points and seven rebounds.

La Salle (1-0) held a 13-point halftime advantage at 36-23, and were up 14 (49-35), before a 14-2 run over a five-minute span put the game out of reach.

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW: RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

GAME 2 - NOVEMBER 20, 2005

USF SUN DOME - TAMPA, FL

Looking to start the season 2-0 for the first time since the 2001-02 season, La Salle dropped a 60-54 decision to Texas-Arlington in the final day of the Image Depot Shootout. Sophomore Carlene Hightower, who scored 14 points Saturday, led the Explorers as she recorded her second career double-double, with team-highs in points, 16 - which also tied her career-high, and rebounds, 11, and was named to the All-Shootout Team.

The Explorers were held to just five points through the first eight minutes, all from junior Jenna Graber, as Texas-Arlington built a seven-point lead. Two made foul shots by senior Shaune McLaughlin and a Davineia Payne basket cut into the deficit, but two straight three pointers by the Mavericks pushed their lead to nine.

To make matters worse, junior Crista Ricketts was sent to the bench for the rest of the half after picking up her third foul at the 7:59 mark. But the Explorer underclassmen picked up the slack to keep the Mavericks close. Freshman Tara Lapetina hit a pair of threes, Hightower scored five points, and freshman Antonia Gale hit two free throws to get the Explorers within three just before the half.

Texas Arlington (1-1), who lost to host South Florida 74-50 Saturday, never allowed the Explorers within the halftime margin and opened a 13-point lead with 9:00 minutes left.

The Mavericks made the most of their missed shots (44) as they scored 23 second-chance points off of 23 offensive rebounds. Terra Wallace led the team with 18 points, while Tojinnay Thompson added 10 points and Dudley grabbed 12 rebounds.

La Salle (1-1) clawed its way back into the game, making it a two-possession game with under a minute to play, when Payne scored on a lay-up with 27 seconds remaining, cutting the deficit to 58-53, but the Explorers would never get closer.

GAME 3 - NOVEMBER 23, 2005

BOB CARPENTER CENTER - NEWARK, DE

A career-high 16 points by La Salle senior Shaune McLaughlin was not enough to help the Explorers to victory in their 70-60 loss to Delaware. McLaughlin surpassed her previous high set almost a year ago versus Boston (15 - 12/4/04), scoring the 16 points on 5-of-10 shooting from the field and converting four free throws.

Junior Crista Ricketts, who was held to her career-low in the Explorers last game (two points), recorded her second 20-point game of the season, 15th of her career with a game-high 21 points. She also registered her first double-double of the season, ninth of her career, as she added a game-high 11 rebounds. Classmate Jenna Graber had a career-night as well, scoring nine points and grabbing six rebounds.

Delaware (3-0) opened the game on a 12-2 run, sparked by two three-pointers by Alena Koshansky, but the Explorers cut the deficit to 14-10 with Ricketts scoring six points in the 8-2 run. The Blue Hens responded with a 17-0 run, holding La Salle scoreless for more than seven minutes. Tyresa Smith and Chrissy Fisher each scored six points in the run, which pushed the score to 31-10. Fisher led Delaware with 19 points and 10 rebounds.

The Explorers (1-2) would get to within nine points after a 14-2 run over a three-minute span, which was capped by a Ricketts' basket at the 4:09 mark of the first half, but La Salle would never get closer.

Delaware would take a 38-27 halftime lead into the locker room, keyed by its shooting. They were 15-of-26 (57.7%) from the field, including 4-of-8 from behind the arc. The Blue Hens opened the second half much like the first, this time with a 15-4 run that pushed their lead to a game-high 22 points (53-31). They finished the game shooting 27-of-55 (49.1%), and made nine shots from beyond the three-point line.

GAME 4 - NOVEMBER 27, 2005

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

All five La Salle University Women's Basketball starters scored in double figures, as the Explorers defeated the visiting Wagner Seahawks, 77-53, in La Salle's home opener.

Tying for the game-high for the Explorers were seniors Davineia Payne and Shaune McLaughlin, and junior Crista Ricketts, who all scored 13 points.

Payne and Ricketts also tied for the team-high with six rebounds each, and Payne also added six assists and two steals to her totals. McLaughlin had five rebounds and added three assists and two steals to her line.

Sophomore Carlene Hightower added 10 points and five rebounds for the Explorers, while junior Jenna Graber scored 11 points, hitting a trio of three pointers.

The Explorers scored the game's first points on a McLaughlin lay-up and never trailed in the game. La Salle used a 21-2 run over a seven-minute span capped by a basket by sophomore Melanie Gibbons to push its lead to 29-8.

La Salle (2-2) shot 55.6% from the field in the first half, including hitting five three-pointers, while Wagner was just 10-of-28 from the floor and missed all seven of its threes in the first half. The Explorers held a 49-22 lead at the break, and the Seahawks would never get closer than 17 points in the second half.

Off the bench, Gibbons scored seven points and had four boards, while sophomore Alyse Hoover, playing in her first game of the season, also scored seven points and classmate Meghan Ahl had four boards and four assists in the game.

Wagner (0-3) had three players hit double figures, including the game's top scorer Joy Gallagher, who scored 21 points and had five rebounds. Ali Ridge added 10 points and nine rebounds, while Chelsey Bunyer also had 10 points.

GAME 5 - NOVEMBER 30, 2005

EVENTS CENTER - VESTAL, NY

La Salle was hurt by foul trouble and fell to the Binghamton Bearcats, 84-70. Both of their post players, junior Crista Ricketts and sophomore Carlene Hightower each picked up four fouls before 10 minutes left in the game and fouled out with four minutes left.

Most of those fouls were called while guarding the Bearcats' Laine Kurpniece, who scored a career-high 28 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, including 18 points in the second half as Binghamton opened up what was a close game in the first half.

Through the game's first 10 minutes, the two teams played even with neither gaining more than a basket lead. However, when senior Shaune McLaughlin scored on a lay-up at 9:51 in the first half, it gave the Explorers a four-point lead and after she hit two free throws two minutes later, La Salle (2-3) took its largest lead of the game at 23-18.

Binghamton (2-2) used a 14-3 run over the next three minutes highlighted by a pair of three-point baskets by Jen Blues to take a 32-26 lead with 4:22 left in the first half and took the six-point lead into intermission at 37-31.

Just 38 seconds into the second half, Ricketts was whistled for her fourth foul, and without her, the Explorers turned to a smaller quicker line-up and were able to tie the game with less than 14 minutes to play. The run was keyed by a pair of threes by junior Jenna Graber and when senior Davineia Payne converted two free throws, the score was 49-49.

Hightower was the go-to person in the post once Ricketts went out and she responded with 10 points in the second half and finished with a career-high 17 for the game.

Her two free throws at the 11:29 mark of the second evened the game at 53-53, however the Bearcats used an 18-2 run over the next five minutes to open up the game, and the Explorers would never get the deficit back into single digits.

GAME 6 - DECEMBER 4, 2005

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Junior Crista Ricketts and senior Davineia Payne combined for 46 points and 17 rebounds as La Salle defeated Rider, 74-50, Sunday afternoon.

Ricketts recorded her 10th double-double of her career and 16th career game with more than 20 points, as she scored a game-high 25 points, added a game-high 10 rebounds and dished out a career-high five assists. Payne scored 21 points as she notched her ninth career game of 20-plus points and grabbed seven rebounds in the victory.

It was the first time that two La Salle teammates reached at least 20 points since Jill Marano (21) and Meghan Wilkinson (20) accomplished the feat in a 70-69 victory over Dayton on Feb. 13, 2003 at Tom Gola Arena.

Rider (0-5) held its largest lead of the game just two minutes in at 5-2, and was down a point at 13-12 after a Shaunice Parker lay-up at the 9:51 mark of the first half. Parker and Janelle Henderson tied for team-high in points with 13, while Kara Borel added eight points and nine boards in the loss.

Over the next three minutes, Ricketts and freshman Tara Lapetina took La Salle (3-3) on a 10-0 run which broke the game open. Lapetina hit a pair of three pointers, both assisted by Ricketts, and Ricketts scored on two lay-ups, with one assist by Lapetina, which turned the one-point lead into 11.

The Broncos cut the deficit to eight by the half at 31-23, but a 12-2 run by the Explorers to open the second half would help La Salle cruise to the 24-point victory. Ricketts scored seven of her points in the run, which also included a Payne three pointer.

Lapetina scored a career-high 11 points in the game, as she was 3-of-4 from three-point land, the third game this season she has hit three in a game from beyond the arc.

GAME 7 - DECEMBER 10, 2005

DASKALAKIS ATHLETIC CENTER - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Despite a game-high 24 points from junior Crista Ricketts, La Salle dropped a 53-48 decision to the host Drexel Dragons. Ricketts scored the 24 points on 10-of-15 shooting from the floor and 4-of-6 from the foul line. It was her 17th career game with more than 20 points; however it was only the fifth time the Explorers have fallen when she hits the mark.

Drexel (3-3) scored the game's first basket and never trailed in the contest. The Dragons were led by Catherine Scanlon, who scored 14 points and had eight rebounds, Nicole Hester, 12 points, and five boards, and Delise Johnson, 11 points and nine rebounds.

La Salle (3-4) would never be closer than after an Alyse Hoover three-point basket pulled them to within one at 8-7 with 11:52 left in the first half. Drexel would score the game's next seven points and take a nine-point lead into the locker room.

The Explorers would cut their deficit back to four at 28-24, just 4:30 minutes into the second half after a Ricketts' free throw, but she would be whistled for her third and fourth fouls over the next two minutes, sending her to the bench for the next seven minutes.

The Dragons pushed the lead to as many as 15 and after Narissa Suber converted two free throws, held a 51-37 lead with 4:44 left in the game. It would be the last points Drexel would score until Jackie Falson iced the game with two more free throws with 16 ticks left.

During that run, senior Davineia Payne was the only Explorer to score, picking up six of her eight points during the stretch. She added a game-high 10 rebounds to her totals.

La Salle would hold Drexel to just six points (all free throws) over the last 8:30 of the game, as they cut a 15-point deficit down to three. Ricketts scored eight points during the run, and classmate Jenna Graber scored five. Her two foul shots pulled La Salle to 51-48 with 17 seconds left, but Falson provided the game's final points with her two free throws.

SEASON

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

In a second half that saw two ties and 13 lead changes, Villanova (7-2, 3-0 Big 5) took its largest lead of the half at 54-48 after a Dessart Mager jumper with 6:57 to play, but the Explorers would hold them scoreless for almost six minutes, and a Ricketts jumper with 2:59 to play gave La Salle the lead back. Adamshick would take back the lead for Wildcats with a jumper at the 1:04 mark, before the Pavne basket and her later heroics.

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

In the next two minutes, the Explorers missed six shots which could have gotten them to within five points, but they could not get over the hump. Commodore Holly Rogers hit a three-pointer at the 8:25 mark and a minute later, Nicole Jules scored two of her game-high 21 points to push their lead to 12 and it would never get under single digits again.

GAME 11 - JANUARY 3, 2006
RYAN CENTER - KINGSTON, RI

Junior Crista Ricketts scored 24 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to lead La Salle to a 55-48 victory over Rhode Island. She helped La Salle end its four-game losing streak, longest since January 2004 (a five-game losing streak), and end the team's road woes. They had not won a game on an opponents home court since winning at Rhode Island last year (Jan. 9, 2005) and they improved their record against the Rams to 15-1 all-time.

Despite holding the Rams scoreless for the game's first five minutes, La Salle was only able to take a 2-0 lead, turning the ball over seven times during that stretch. Averaging just 12.4 turnovers a game, the Explorers committing a season-high 18 in the game.

La Salle (4-7, 1-0 A-10) was able to start hitting its shots - 2-for-14 to start the game - and built a 15-6 lead with Ricketts scoring 10 points. She then ended a 6-0 Ram run with another basket with less than four minutes to go in the first, putting La Salle up 17-12.

Rhode Island (3-8, 0-1 A-10 play) pulled to within two points after Mia Marcus hit a three-point basket, but the Explorers closed out the half on a 6-0 run to go into the break up 23-15. Ricketts scored three more in the run for 15 points in the first, matching the Rams' output, and added eight boards.

After junior Jenna Graber hit her only three of the night at the 18:32 mark of the second, La Salle pushed its lead into double digits. They held a 14-point advantage with 12:05 left in the game after scoring four straight points, and Tanya Rhodes scored with senior Shaune McLaughlin and another basket by Ricketts.

The Rams began using a 1-3-1 half-court trap to get back into the game. Amanda McGrew started the comeback with five straight points, and Tanya Rhodes scored six points. Her basket at the 5:14 mark cut the La Salle lead to just four points (45-41).

Ricketts would score five points to help La Salle take command of the game, and when she hit a free throw with 36 seconds left, the Explorers were up nine (52-43).

GAME 12 - JANUARY 6, 2006
ROBINS CENTER - RICHMOND, VA

Sophomore Carlene Hightower hit a 15-foot jumper with 3.7 seconds left to lift La Salle to a 59-58 victory over Richmond in Atlantic 10 action. Leading for most of the game, the Explorers would fall behind by as many as six points (58-52) with less than two minutes to go, but showed resolve to get the chance for the winning basket.

La Salle (5-7, 2-0 A-10) got a basket from senior Shaune McLaughlin, then a three-pointer by junior Jenna Graber which would cut the deficit to one. A missed shot by the Spiders Saona Chapman gave La Salle a chance for the win, which Hightower made good on.

For the Explorers, it is the first time they have won back-to-back road games since 2003. That was also the last season that the Explorers started the A-10 slate 2-0. It was also the first time that the Explorers have beaten the Spiders in the Robins Center in five tries.

La Salle jumped out to a 10-point lead at 14-4, thanks in part to Hightower, who scored seven points in seven minutes, which included her first career three-point basket.

Richmond (6-8, 1-1 A-10) relied on Mirna Mazic and Kelly Roche to try and get them back into the game. The Spiders cut the Explorer lead down to four points, 22-18, with 4:48 left in the first half, as Mazic scored seven points and Roche five.

McLaughlin would push the lead up to seven with a three-pointer and when junior Crista Ricketts hit a basket just before the buzzer, it capped an Explorer 12-4 run to end the first half and gave La Salle a 34-22 halftime advantage.

After the break, the Spiders would hold La Salle to just one field goal through the first 13 minutes as they made a comeback. When Roche hit a three-pointer with 4:12 left in the game, it gave Richmond its first lead since two minutes into the first half.

Mazic scored 30 points, the first time La Salle has allowed a 30+ point scorer in six years (Brienne Stepherson, Boston College, 31, 12/22/99). However, her foul shooting doomed Richmond. She was 4-of-14 from the line and missed two with under a minute left.

GAME 13 - JANUARY 8, 2006
TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Temple's Candice Dupree caught a court-length pass with less than three seconds left, hit a lay-up and then a foul shot to lift the #24/23-ranked Owls to a 66-64 overtime win.

The Explorers had just taken the lead 64-63 with four seconds left after junior Crista Ricketts also scored on an old-fashion three - lay-up and foul shot. After hitting the lay-up, Ricketts faced the same situation she had near the end of regulation, a made foul shot would give the Explorers the lead.

GAME 17 - JANUARY 22, 2006
TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

La Salle used an 18-4 run in a four-minute span in the second half to turn a tie game with Saint Joseph's into a 14-point lead, and then hit 15-of-16 free throws down the stretch to hold on for a 65-50 victory over the Hawks.

Saint Joseph's (12-6, 4-3 A-10) led early in the game by 10 points, but trailed for most of the second half. They finally got their first lead in the second after a Timisha Gomez three-pointer, and when Erica Pollock scored two of her team-high 18 points with 9:25 left in the game, the game was knotted at 32-32.

Junior Jenna Graber hit a pair of three pointers in the run, while sophomore Melanie Gibbons scored a basket and hit two free throws. Freshman Tara Lapetina capped the run with her third three pointer of the game, and gave the Explorers a 50-36 lead with 5:11 left. Senior Shaune McLaughlin was perfect from the foul line from that points on, hitting 10-for-10, while classmate Davineia Payne was 3-for-4 and Graber converted her only two.

Junior Crista Ricketts led the Explorers with 16 points and nine rebounds, as McLaughlin added 14 points and Graber 11. Payne also grabbed nine boards and scored eight points, while Lapetina scored nine points off the bench.

La Salle (9-8, 6-1 A-10) hit a season-high 26 free throws, including 22 in the second half. They also connected on seven three-point baskets.

With the win, La Salle equals its best start in school history in the Atlantic 10 Conference. The 1996-97 squad started the conference 6-1, went on to finish 12-4 and reached the A-10 tournament's semifinals. The six wins in the A-10 also match the win totals in two of the last three seasons - 2003-04 team won seven conference games.

The Explorers held Saint Joseph's top two scorer, Ayahna Cornish (12.5 PPG) and Faith Schutte (10.1 PPG) to just 10 points combined and no Hawk, other than Pollock, reach double figures in scoring. Maura McBryan recorded a team-high seven rebounds

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

A career-high 21 points by junior Jenna Graber was not enough, as Massachusetts ended La Salle's overall and Atlantic 10 winning streaks with a 67-60 victory.

Graber knocked down 7-of-12 three pointers, a career-high and one of the Explorer record for a single game, for her game-high 21 points. It was her first time reaching the 20+ point total in her career.

La Salle (10-9, 6-2 A-10) looked well on its way to its fifth straight conference win and sixth straight overall when the Explorers used 22-4 run in a six minute span. Graber hit four of her three pointers during the stretch, while Shaune McLaughlin also hit one as the Explorers enjoyed a 14-point lead with just under 10 minutes left in the first half.

Massachusetts (6-13, 3-5 A-10) started to chip away at its deficit and made it a one-point game after Kate Mills scored on a jumper with under two minutes left in the half.

McLaughlin converted two free throws just before intermission to push the Explorers' advantage back to three points at 31-28. Crista Ricketts made it five points with a lay-up right out of the break, however the Minutewomen continued on their run.

Over the next seven minutes, Massachusetts used a 20-4 run to take an 11-point lead capped by Alisha Tatham's three-point basket. She scored seven of her 10 points in the stretch and added a game-high 11 rebounds to her totals.

The Explorers struggled from the field during that time, however a lucky bounce seemed to spark their offense. A missed three pointer by Graber somehow found the basket. As Davineia Payne and a UMass defender were battling under the basket for the rebound, the ball was tipped into the net, and Payne was credited with the score.

La Salle scored five more points in to cut the deficit to three and had the ball. However, a missed three pointer by Tara Lapetina and a four-point play on the other end by Katie Nelson pushed the UMass lead to seven and the Explorers would never get closer.

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW: RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

GAME 20 - JANUARY 29, 2006

HALTON ARENA - CHARLOTTE, NC

Playing in its fifth game in 10 days and without leading scorer Crista Ricketts, La Salle suffered a 77-57 loss to Charlotte, Sunday afternoon in Atlantic 10 action at Halton Arena. The 49ers (14-5, 7-1 A-10) are making the most of their first season in the conference. After splitting its first two A-10 games (the loss was at Temple), Charlotte has reeled off six straight conference wins, which has vaulted them into a tie for the top spot with George Washington. Those teams do not play until the regular season finale.

La Salle (10-10, 6-3 A-10), which was off to its best start in conference play since the 1996-97 season, when the Explorers were 6-1, have fallen in their last two games. The loss also marked the Explorers first on the road this season in A-10 play.

The Explorers led early at 6-5 before the 49ers scored seven straight points. They took a 7-6 lead at the 16:35 mark of the first half after Pam Brown tipped in a missed jumper by Whitney Hoey and never trailed again.

After Charlotte opened an eight-point lead (16-8), sophomore Carlene Hightower scored four points in a La Salle 6-0 spurt that cut its deficit to just a basket.

The 49ers outscored the Explorers 10-1 to push its lead to double figures and would never allow the Explorers closer than seven the rest of the way.

Hightower scored a game- and career-high 29 points, and at one point in the contest had 19 of the Explorers 36 points. She was only stopped when she was whistled for her fourth foul and went to the bench for five minutes. She went 13-of-18 from the field and hit 3-of-4 from the foul line, and she also grabbed a game-high eight rebounds.

The 49ers used a balance attack as all of their players who saw action scored. Four players reached double figures led by Sakellie Daniels, who scored 16 points, while Brown scored 12, Courtney Williams had 11 and Sabrina Gregory chipped in 10.

GAME 21 - FEBRUARY 3, 2006

BAUMANN-EBERHARDT CENTER - SAINT LOUIS, MO

After starting off the Atlantic 10 slate 6-1, La Salle has lost its last three in the conference, including a 70-60 setback at Saint Louis. The Explorers did get solid performances from both senior Davineia Payne and sophomore Carlene Hightower.

Payne scored a season-high 24 points, one off her career-high, and added nine rebounds, one short of her second double-double of the season. Hightower, coming off a career-high 29 points at Charlotte, poured in 17 points and had eight boards.

Saint Louis (5-15, 2-7 A-10) held the Explorers scoreless for the game's first 3:30, but could only score five points, then built a 10-4 lead after a Cara Young three-point basket.

Payne would pull La Salle back into the game hitting her first five shots from the field. Her basket at the 12:07 mark would put La Salle up 13-12, but that lead was short-lived.

The Billikens would respond with a 19-6 run over the next 6:30 minutes, as Marquita McFarland scored eight of her team-high 16 points in that time. The run was started and capped by a Rachel Diener three-point basket, as she scored six in the span.

Trailing by 12, the Explorers closed out the first half on a 9-4 run, with Payne scoring an old-fashion three-point play and Hightower scoring the last four to cut the deficit to 35-28.

After the intermission, Saint Louis pushed its lead back to double figures and after back-to-back baskets by Heather King; they had its largest lead of 13 points (45-32) with less than 17 minutes left in the game.

La Salle (10-11, 6-4 A-10) picked up its defensive pressure and held the Billikens scoreless for more than four minutes. They used a 13-2 run with junior Jenna Graber hitting a pair of threes and when Hightower scored her sixth point in the stretch, the Explorers had the deficit down to two with 10:40 remaining.

Again the Billikens answered with another spurt, this time a 12-3 run that pushed their lead to double digits, and the Explorers would never get closer than six points again.

GAME 22 - FEBRUARY 10, 2006

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

After starting the Atlantic 10 slate 6-1, the La Salle University Women's Basketball team was in the midst of a three-game losing streak. However, with the help of senior Davineia Payne, the Explorers ended the skid with a 62-50 victory over visiting Dayton.

Payne, who was recently named the Big 5 Player of the Week after matching her season-high of 24 points and grabbing nine boards in a loss at Saint Louis, again hit the 20+ point mark, scoring 21 points and again collecting nine rebounds. She shot 6-of-10 from the floor, hit 3-of-3 from three-point land and was 6-of-7 from the foul line.

She opened the game with a three pointer and after the Flyers tied the game at 5-5, La Salle slowly built a 14-point lead by the 7:31 mark of the first half. Payne hit a jumper, scored an old-fashion three - lay-up and foul shot, and then hit a pair of threes, her second putting La Salle up 27-13.

Dayton (15-7, 7-4 A-10) was still down to low with 4:33 left, but held the Explorers scoreless for the rest of the half and closed with a 9-0 run. Jennifer Strong scored four points in the stretch as the Flyers trailed by just one (35-34) heading into intermission.

After the break, the Flyers scored eight of the next 12 points and when Kiki Lund scored with 13:31 left in the game, Dayton held its largest lead of the game at 42-39.

La Salle (11-11, 7-4 A-10) would hold the Flyers to just four made free throws over the next nine minutes and would take command of the game with a 19-4 run. Sophomore Meghan AHL, who played the final 14 minutes of the second half, started the Explorer comeback with a driving lay-up and also added two defensive boards.

Dayton's Angela Cape cut the Explorer lead back to 10 with a basket with 4:04 left. However, any chance of a Dayton comeback was squashed when, with the shot clock winding down, junior Jenna Graber connected on her third three-point basket of the night putting La Salle up 61-48 with just 2:43 left.

GAME 23 - FEBRUARY 12, 2006

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Sophomore Carlene Hightower scored a game-high 23 points, her fifth straight game in double figures, but it was not enough as Xavier defeated the Explorers, 70-62.

With La Salle trailing by 18 (62-44) with three minutes left in the contest, Hightower led an Explorer charge back into the game. She scored 13 of LaSalle's final 18 points in a span of 2:20, which included her knocking down three three-point baskets. Her final make cut the Xavier lead to just six points, however the Explorers ran out of time.

Xavier (17-7, 8-5 A-10) had four players reach double figures, led by the Musketeers' Wooden Award candidate Tara Boothe, who recorded her seventh double-double of the season with 18 points and 11 rebounds.

La Salle (11-12, 7-5 A-10) used a 10-0 run early in the first half to jump out to a nine-point lead, as Hightower scored six points in the stretch. When senior Shaune McLaughlin scored with 13:11 left in the first half, the Explorers were ahead 12-3.

The Musketeers started to chip into the lead and after Suntana Granderson hit back-to-back three-point baskets, the first one tying the game and the second, with 2:44 left before intermission, gave Xavier a lead it would take into the break.

The Explorers were able to hold Boothe, the A-10's leading scorer (20.6 PPG), to just two made free throws and 0-for-7 shooting from the field in the first half. However, after junior Jenna Graber tied the game at 26 early in the second, Boothe started to get her points. She scored eight of Xavier's next 13 points to push the Musketeer lead into double figures.

The Musketeers slowly increased their lead to 18 with 3:02 left in the game thanks to 60.0% shooting in the second half, and it looked like they would cruise to victory.

La Salle forced Xavier into three turnovers and hit four threes in all the run at the end, but Xavier held off the comeback by hitting 6-of-8 free throws down the stretch

GAME 24 - FEBRUARY 17, 2006

CHARLES E. SMITH ATHLETIC CENTER - WASHINGTON, DC

La Salle has never beaten George Washington at the Charles E. Smith Center and they left the nation's capital with another loss at the hands of the Colonials, this one 67-49.

The Explorers had two players reach double figures, sophomore Carlene Hightower, for the sixth straight game with 15 points, and junior Jenna Graber, who added 12 points.

The Colonials, though, had three players reach 10+ points, led by two players who recorded double-doubles. Whitney Allen scored 13 points and had 11 rebounds, while Jazmine Adair had 12 points and 12 boards.

Hightower started the game with a three, but the Colonials scored the game's next nine points and when George Washington's Jessica Simmonds was fouled on a lay-up with 16:07 left in the first half, every starting Colonial was in the scorebook; and they led 13-5.

George Washington (18-6, 11-2 A-10) pushed its lead to 10 at 19:09 seven minutes into the game, however a 9-2 run by La Salle over the next three minutes cut the Colonial lead to three. Graber started and ended the run with three-point baskets, while senior Davineia Payne also hit a three, and the Explorers trailed 21-18 with 10:04 left in the first.

The Colonials increased their lead to as many as 10, again, and took a seven-point lead (35-28) into the locker room thanks to balanced scoring - seven players with at least three points; defense -- forced La Salle into 12 turnovers, resulting in 15 points; and offensive rebounding - nine resulting in six points.

La Salle (11-13, 7-6 A-10) continued to hang around with the Colonials, but when Sarah-Jo Lawrence scored with 11:19 left in the game, La Salle was down 11.

They responded with another Graber three - her 63rd of the season, giving her the single-season record for made threes. After junior Crista Ricketts finished off a three-point play with a made foul shot at the 10:36 mark, the Explorers trailed by just five (50-45).

An 15-1 run by the Colonials over the next seven minutes put the game away.

GAME 25 - FEBRUARY 19, 2006

ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Shaune McLaughlin scored a team-high 15 points, including the team's last 10, but it was not enough to help La Salle to a victory as the host Saint Joseph's Hawks won 61-55.

With La Salle trailing by six points, 51-45, and under two minutes left in the game, McLaughlin twice cut the Hawk lead to three points, first with a three-point basket, and then after two made foul shots by Saint Joseph's Whitney Ffrench, a lay-up with 1:26 left.

Saint Joseph's (17-8, 9-5 A-10) pushed its lead back to six with a Jen Oyler three and McLaughlin responded with another basket with :37 seconds left and the Explorers down four, 56-52. La Salle could only manage another three-point basket by McLaughlin, as the Hawks would convert 5-of-8 foul shots the rest of the way to seal the win.

La Salle (11-13, 7-7 A-10) trailed for most of the opening period, managing only one-point leads at 6:5 with 14:22 left and 15:14 midway through the first half. When the Hawks opened the second half with a Hillary Klimowicz lay-up, the Explorers faced their largest deficit of the game (at the time) at six points, 30-24.

They responded with back-to-back threes, with McLaughlin connecting on the first and junior Jenna Graber hitting the second, tying the game at 30-30 with 18:17 left.

The Hawks pulled away again, taking a 37-32 lead before La Salle scored six straight points to take its only lead of the second half. Sophomore Carlene Hightower started the run, McLaughlin added a basket, and when Melanie Gibbons hit a 12-footer, the Explorers were up 38-37 with 12:42 remaining.

Saint Joseph's would go on a 14-5 run over the game's next 10 minutes as they built an eight-point lead with less than three minutes to go, as Ffrench scored eight of her game-high 16 points in the run.

McLaughlin and Hightower tied for the team-high with eight rebounds, while Hightower added eight points. Crista Ricketts scored 12 in the game and added six boards.

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW: RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

GAME 26 - FEBRUARY 24, 2006

TOM GOLA ARENA - PHILADELPHIA, PA

Trailing by 17 points with under four minutes to play, La Salle scored 14 straight points to get as close as 68-65, but the Fordham Rams converted 8-of-10 free throws from that point on to seal its victory over the Explorers, 76-68, in Atlantic 10 action Friday night.

Fordham (9-17, 4-11 A-10) got 60 of their points from three players, Lisa Carroll (23), Jada Jefferson (21) and Stacey Price (16). The trio combined to shoot 23-of-33 from the floor (69.7%), while the Rams shot 62.2% for the game.

La Salle (11-15, 7-8 A-10) led for most of the first half, holding a game-high seven-point lead at the 11:31 mark. They held a 28-22 lead before the Rams used a 7-0 run to grab its first lead. After Fordham held a 31-30 advantage, sophomore Carlene Hightower hit a three and junior Crista Ricketts hit a free throw to give La Salle a three-point halftime lead.

A lay-up by Jefferson at the 18:33 mark of the second put Fordham up again at 36-34, before La Salle tallied the game's next seven points and after junior Jenna Graber hit her fourth three of the night, the Explorers were up 41-36 with 16:32 remaining.

Then the lid was put over the La Salle basket and the Ram's basket grew to double the size, because from 16:00 to the 10:53 mark, the Explorers went 0-for-5 from the floor with three turnovers and Fordham hit 7-of-8 shots and was 4-for-5 from the foul line and when Price scored on a lay-up, the Rams led 55-41.

The Rams continued to build on their lead, pushing it to as many as 18 (64-46) with 6:44 left in the game, and a Price jumper with 5:23 left put them up 68-51.

Two harmless made free throws by Ricketts at the 3:46 mark cut the lead down to 15, but it was the start of a 14-0 run. Senior Shaune McLaughlin scored six in the stretch and when Ricketts completed a three-point play with another made foul shot, La Salle was down three with 1:29 left. However, the Explorers would get no closer the rest of the way.

GAME 27 - FEBRUARY 26, 2006

MULLINS MEMORIAL CENTER - AMHERST, MA

La Salle dropped its fifth straight game for the first time since the 2004 season (Jan. 6-23), when they lost a 63-55 decision at Massachusetts in the regular season finale.

Senior Davineia Payne scored a game-high 20 points, her fifth 20+ point game of the season, while sophomore Alyse Hoover scored a career-high 10 points off the bench.

Massachusetts (11-16, 8-8 A-10) opened the game on a 9-0 run over the first four minutes, and held a 15-1 advantage before La Salle made its first basket from the floor. They increased the lead to as many as 21 (27-6) at the 5:39 mark after Patrycja Gulak jumper.

La Salle (11-16, 7-9 A-10) hit just two of its first 20 shots in the first half. Hoover connected on a pair of three-point baskets to help the Explorers get back into the contest, and her fourth basket of the half at the 1:20 mark cut the deficit to 30-18.

The Minutewomen's Pam Rosanio scored her 13th point of the first half on a basket with 50 seconds left, and La Salle senior Shaune McLaughlin converted two free throws just before the intermission to get the deficit back to 12 at 32-20 at the break.

The Explorers shot just 23.1% in the first half compared to Massachusetts 50.0% and were outrebounded 22-11, but forced the Minutewomen into seven first-half turnovers, which assisted them in using the 14-5 run to close out the first half.

Junior Crista Ricketts scored four of La Salle's first eight points out of the locker room, which cut the Massachusetts lead to just 36-28 with 16:30 left in the second.

Gulak responded with four straight points to get the Minutewomen's lead back to double figures and Kate Mills scored seven straight for her team to increase the advantage to 15 at 47-32 with 8:10 remaining.

The Explorers would score 16 points in the game's last 1:30 to cut the deficit to six points, with McLaughlin hitting five of her nine points. She also added six assists. But, Massachusetts shot 9-of-10 from the foul line during that time to secure their victory.

GAME 28 - MARCH 3, 2006

ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE - PHILADELPHIA, PA

The three La Salle players honored by the Atlantic 10 with postseason honors all hit for double figures, however it was not enough to help the Explorers continue their season as they fell to Richmond, 60-53, in the first round of the A-10 Tournament.

Davineia Payne, playing in her last game in the Blue and Gold, and Carlene Hightower both recorded double-doubles

BROTHER MICHAEL J. MCGINNISS

President, La Salle University

Now in his second term as President of La Salle University, Brother Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C., Ph.D., became the University's 28th president on July 1, 1999. He previously had been a member of the school's Religion Department and for five years was President of Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn.

Under Br. Michael's direction, the University has developed a new strategic plan and significantly increased enrollment, giving, and alumni involvement in the life of the University. In addition, the University built and opened a new residence hall for 428 students and adjoining dining facility in 2005. In cooperation with the Board of Trustees, Br. Michael has launched "Shoulder to Shoulder," a fundraising initiative whose goal is to raise $25 million for the construction of a new science and technology center and the strengthening of the endowment for student scholarships.

A native Philadelphian, Br. Michael joined the De La Salle Christian Brothers in 1965 and graduated maxima cum laude from La Salle in 1970 with a degree in English. He obtained his master's degree and Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Notre Dame.

From 1970 to 1974, he was a member of the English and Religion departments at South Hills Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. While a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame, he taught undergraduate courses in the Theology Department and was assistant rector of Grace Hall.

His first teaching experience at La Salle was as a visiting instructor in the Graduate Religion Program in the summer of 1978. He was also an assistant professor at the Washington Theological Union from 1979 to 1984. From 1986 to 1990, he was a visiting instructor at Loyola University's Summer Institute of Pastoral Studies.

In 1984, Br. Michael joined the faculty at La Salle on a full-time basis, eventually reaching the rank of full professor in 1993. Recognized by the De La Salle Christian Brothers for his qualities as a leader, he attended La session internationale des études lasalliennes (a program of study of Lasallian spirituality) in Rome in 1991. He became Chair of La Salle's Religion Department that year, and the following year he received the Lindback Distinguished Teaching Award. Also in 1992, he was appointed vice president of the La Salle University Corporation. In 1995, he became a member of La Salle's Board of Trustees.

In 1994, he became president of Christian Brothers University. Under his leadership, undergraduate enrollment and retention rates were increased; a Graduate Education Program was established; the Athletic Department joined the NCAA Division II Gulf South Conference; new residence halls were constructed; enhancements were made to science labs and facilities; the school's Engineering departments were re-accredited; an upgrade of information technology systems throughout the campus was implemented; and the Center for Global Enterprise was founded. He also played a key role in the school's 125th anniversary celebration.

He has published articles in such journals as Listening: Journal of Religion and Culture and New Theology Review. He has written chapters in religious books and texts, including "The Catholic University as a Context for Pastoral Studies: Reflections on Three Programs" in Pastoral Studies in the University Setting (University of Ottawa Press). He edited six volumes of the Christian Brothers' Spirituality Seminar Series. Since 1983, his reviews of books have appeared in journals such as Horizons, Theological Studies, Journal of Ecumenical Studies, and Holistic Nursing Practice. For many years, he has lectured to a variety of academic and professional groups on issues related to spirituality, pastoral care, and theology.

His academic areas of expertise are pastoral theology, history and theology of ministry, methods and models of theological reflection, ecclesiology, and Lasallian spirituality.

Br. Michael serves on the Boards of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania, American University of Rome, Manhattan College, Calvert Hall College (Baltimore, MD), the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, and the Office of Community Development of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. In addition, he is a member of the Chairman's Advisory Council for the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

His professional memberships include the Catholic Theological Society of America, the American Academy of Religion, the College Theology Society, the Lasallian Association of College and University Presidents, and the International Association of Lasallian Universities.

DR. THOMAS BRENNAN
Dir. of Intercollegiate Athletics & Recreation

DR. THOMAS BRENNANDIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS AND RECREATION

Dr. Thomas Brennan has ushered in a new era in La Salle Athletics since his appointment as the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and recreation on September 18, 1997. He guides the school's 23-sport Division I Athletic program as the university enters its 11th season in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Since coming to La Salle, Brennan has reorganized many areas within the Athletic Department, including the formation of the Explorer Club, a fundraising/booster organization, and the introduction of an active Corporate Partners/Athletic Sponsorship program. Brennan is a member of the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Philadelphia, a member of the Executive Committee for the Philadelphia Sports Congress and has served as Chair for the Atlantic 10 Conference Post-Graduate Scholarship, Finance and Television Communications, the Women's Basketball Committee, and the Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Brennan is also a member of the Executive Committee for the National Consortium for Academics and Sport.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-1997, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Maryland from 1986-1990. From 1980-1986 Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director for Advancement. His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic departments.

A 1973 graduate of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, NY, Brennan went on to earn his Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie, Tim, and Kate.

JOHN LYONS

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

John Lyons is in his 25th year as a member of the Athletic Department. For the first 17 years in the department, he served as the Head Swimming Coach.

Lyons was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in February 1999. He is responsible for the Internal Operations of the Athletic Department including Budgets, Compliance Services, Personnel, and Facilities. He also oversees the Sports Medicine Department and Strength and Conditioning Programs.

Lyons is also an adjunct faculty member of the La Salle biology department, where he teaches one class per semester. He also sits on numerous university committees and was the liaison for the NCAA Certification and Peer Review for the past academic year.

Throughout his coaching career, he won outstanding coaching awards, including three Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year awards and was an eight-time recipient of the Coach of the Year Award when La Salle competed in the MAAC. Lyons has also amassed over 100 dual meet victories in his career. During his tenure, La Salle earned national recognition and distinction. With Lyons at the helm, the Explorers won 13 men's and women's conference titles. He was inducted in the La Salle University Hall of Athletes for coaching in 2002.

He is the Chair of the NCAA Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Rules Committee (for DI, II, and III) and chair of the Men's and Women's DI Championship Committee Atlantic 10 Swimming and Diving Committee. He also is the Chair A-10 Women's Soccer Committee.

Lyons holds a Master's degree in Education from Bucknell. He resides in Maple Glen, PA with his three sons, Daniel, Jeffrey, and Zachary.

PETER D'ORAZIO

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Peter J. D'Orazio, who is entering his 25th year at La Salle, is the Associate Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement. His responsibilities include coordination of the Corporate Partnership/ Athletic Sponsorship Program, serving as the Executive Director of the Explorer Club, La Salle Athletics Fund Development and Booster Organization and overseeing the Office of Athletic Communications. In addition, he is responsible for coordination of all marketing initiatives of the athletic department. As the Executive Director of the Explorer Club, he is responsible for all fundraising efforts of the athletic department.

Under his direction in the Athletic Advancement Office, revenue and membership in the Explorer Club have increased each year. In addition, the Athletic Sponsorship Program has provided additional revenue for the athletic department. He has also been instrumental in acquiring grants for Project Teamwork, the Athletic Department's Youth Outreach and Community Service Program.

D'Orazio's professional career at La Salle started in 1982 when he was appointed Assistant Facility Director. In 1985, he became the Director of Intramurals and in 1989 was given additional responsibilities as Basketball Ticket Manager. In 1997, he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Campus Recreation and Promotions, and in the spring of 1998, he assumed his current position as Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement.

A graduate of La Salle College in 1981, D'Orazio majored in Criminal Justice. He went on to complete his Master's in Education in the Recreation Program at Temple University. Currently, Peter is a member of the Board of Directors of the La Salle University Alumni Association. He is also a trustee for the Son's of Italy, Ivy Ridge Lodge 251. D'Orazio's love of La Salle stems back to his student days as the men's basketball manager during the 1977-1981 seasons, with teams that won two conference championships and made two NCAA appearances. In addition to sports, D'Orazio lists cooking, music, and golf as his interests. Currently he resides in Glenside with his wife, Fran, and their children – Rebecca, Annaliese, and Celeste.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

MARY ELLEN WYDANASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/
SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Mary Ellen Wydan enters her fifth year as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance and Student Services and is the Senior Woman Administrator at La Salle University.

Wydan came to La Salle University with a plethora of collegiate coaching and administrative experience in her background. She previously worked at Michigan State University as an assistant men's and women's swimming coach from 1995-2000.

Including her tenure at Michigan State, she has 18 years of collegiate swimming coaching experience, including 14 years at the NCAA Division I level. She started her coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina where she received her Master's degree in Sports Administration.

Since then she has been an head coach at Oakland University and an assistant coach at Purdue, Maryland and Kentucky. While at Oakland, Wydan was also the Coordinator of Women's Sports. She was the Assistant to the Compliance Coordinator at Maryland.

JASON KLOTKOWSKIASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Although the newest Assistant Athletic Director at La Salle University, Jason Klotkowski has a long and varied history as part of the Explorer family.

Klotkowski began his affiliation with La Salle as a student in 1989, and has moved up through the ranks over the past decade.

As a student, he served as president and competed for four years on La Salle's men's volleyball club team.

In 1995 he took over as the coach for two seasons, along with joining the women's volleyball team as the assistant coach.

The next stop on Klotkowski's journey began in 1996 when he was named the seventh head coach of the women's volleyball program at La Salle. Along with his volleyball coaching duties, Klotkowski also entered the financial sector at La Salle as the Accounting Assistant for the Food Service department.

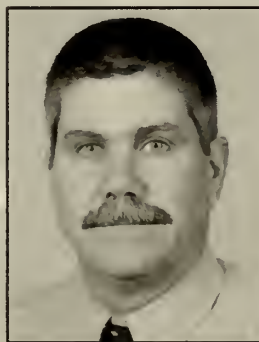

In 1998, still serving as the volleyball coach, Klotkowski moved to the Hayman Center full time, after being named the Accounting Assistant for the athletic department. A year later, Klotkowski's position changed again, as he was named the Assistant Business Manager. Honing his financial skills for two years as the assistant, in 2001 Klotkowski continued his climb, being elevated to Business Manager.

Following the 2002 volleyball season, Klotkowski relinquished his coaching duties to focus on his administrative role. In the spring of 2004, Klotkowski once again was promoted, this time to Assistant Athletic Director for Business Affairs.

Klotkowski's primary responsibilities include supervising the athletic business and ticket offices. After being named Assistant Athletic Director, Klotkowski's duties increased, as he now oversees the student staff for the athletic department as well as event management for all gated events in the athletic complex.

A native of York, Pennsylvania, Klotkowski earned a Bachelor of Science degree in finance from La Salle in 1994. He currently resides in Norristown, Pennsylvania, a suburb of Philadelphia.

BROTHER JOHN KANE, F.S.C.DIRECTOR OF ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

Brother John Kane came to La Salle University in September of 1999 after 19 years working at the high school level. Brother John is a 1980 graduate of La Salle with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He also earned a Master of Arts degree in Religious Education from La Salle.

He begins his second year serving as the Director of Academic Support for Student Athletes. As Director, he is responsible for providing and coordinating appropriate academic support and counseling for all student-athletes. He is also in charge of monitoring the student-athletes academic progress, particularly as it relates to issues of graduation and NCAA academic-athletic eligibility. Before assuming the role in Academic Support Services, Brother John was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in June of 2003.

Prior to coming to La Salle, Brother John spent time at three different high schools. He began his career at Seton-LaSalle High School in Pittsburgh as a teacher and a coach. After two years, he moved to Archbishop Carroll in Radnor, PA, where he continued his teaching and coaching career. He also did a stint as Dean of Students at Carroll.

After Carroll, Brother John moved on to West Philadelphia Catholic High School. In his eight years there he was a teacher and Athletic Director. Kane served a term as Vice Chairman and then Chairman of the Philadelphia Catholic League Board of Directors. During his term as Chairman the Boys Catholic League and the Girls Catholic League successfully merged from two separate leagues into one league.

Brother John was also the League Moderator for Catholic League Basketball during his term as Athletic Director.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

STRENGTH

BRIAN BINGAMAN
HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

A SOLID STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING PROGRAM IS IMPERATIVE IN THE COMPETITIVE WORLD OF COLLEGE ATHLETICS. A CRITICAL COMPONENT TO ON-COURT SUCCESS IS THE WORK THAT IS PUT IN OUTSIDE THE LINES.

La Salle University's Strength and Conditioning Program is designed to maximize the student-athlete's performance. This is accomplished through the use of orthopedically safe, physiologically sound exercises and comprehensive total body training.

By systematically and progressively overloading the muscles trained and holding each athlete accountable for each repetition of each exercise of every workout, the program ensures consistent gains in strength and power.

The focus is on teaching the athlete to produce a maximal effort repeatedly for a given period of time and proprioceptive skill, one's ability to control their body in space, not how much weight an athlete can lift for one repetition.

The program maximizes the time spent in and out of the weight room, preparing the athletes for competition by making the workouts specific and purposeful so that they are a means to an end and not an end in and of themselves.

KERRIE EISENHAUER
ATHLETIC TRAINER
FOR WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

BEHIND ALL GREAT ATHLETIC PROGRAMS IS A GREAT ATHLETIC TRAINING STAFF. AT LA SALLE UNIVERSITY, THE GOAL OF THE ATHLETIC TRAINERS IS TO RETURN THE ATHLETES TO ACTIVITY NOT ONLY QUICKLY, BUT ALSO SAFELY.

The Explorers Athletic Department has three top-notch full-time Athletic Trainers as well as assistance from the NovaCare Rehabilitation group. Bill Gerzabek enters his 19th year as the Director of Sports Medicine at La Salle University. The two assistant athletic trainers at La Salle are Kerrie Eisenhauer, who enters her fifth season, and Chante Rodenas, who is in her third year.

The Athletic Trainers are on staff to cover all of the Explorers home games and practices. They also travel with men's basketball, women's basketball, football, softball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, lacrosse and field hockey.

La Salle's Athletic Trainers work with team physicians, student health, and the counseling center to help oversee the well being of all student-athletes.

The University has established a partnership with the Albert Einstein Health Care Network and provides physicians through the Albert Einstein Sports Medicine program located less than one block from the University. Their physicians are available to La Salle student-athletes on the University campus.

The La Salle University Athletic Department established a partnership with NovaCare Physical Rehabilitation. NovaCare has become the "official provider" of rehabilitation for student-athletes at La Salle. All rehabilitation is performed in house by La Salle University staff and NovaCare Physical Therapists.

YOU'RE ON OUR TURF NOW!

This summer La Salle University became home to Philadelphia's newest athletic playing surfaces when the grass at McCarthy Stadium and DeVincent Field was replaced by Sprinturf brand artificial turf.

The $2.5 million project includes lighting for McCarthy Stadium and the infrastructure to light DeVincent Field in the future.

In addition to giving La Salle student-athletes a state-of-the-art playing surface, the enhancement project has already contributed to student life at La Salle by enabling the intramural programs to expand. The lighting will also contribute to the local community by extending the hours that the track is available.

HOME OF THE EXPLORERS

More than 50 years ago, in Tom Gola's senior season of 1954-55, the La Salle University Men's Basketball team played the majority of its home games in Wister Hall, where the campus bookstore is currently located. Since that season, the men's team has called many sites off campus home; however all that changed on February 21, 1998 with a victory over Virginia Tech.

It took $6.3 million and 280 calendar days from groundbreaking on May 17, 1997, to return the Men's Basketball team to 20th & Olney fulltime. In their last home game of the 1997-98 season, the Explorers defeated the Hokies, 74-64, before a sellout crowd in an arena that went from approximately 1,000 seats to its current capacity of 4,000 – a 400% increase.

Tom Gola Arena is the home of the Explorers and the centerpiece of the Hayman Center. On November 21, 1998, La Salle officially named the arena after the legendary alum of the school in a ceremony at halftime of the men's game that included most of the great La Salle ballplayers over the years. That night, the La Salle Men's and Women's Basketball teams played a twinbill - the women defeated Delaware State, 84-59, the men beat Howard, 86-63.

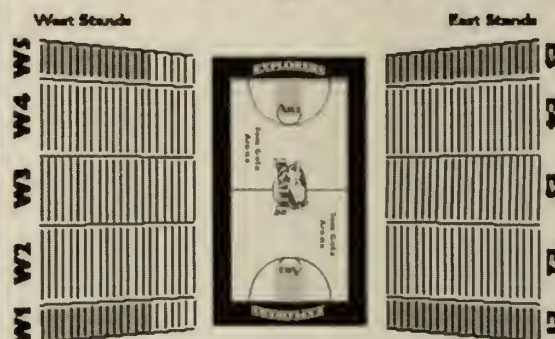

The women's team has been playing at Hayman Hall since its inception in 1972. However, during the renovation, the Explorers played at Bucky Harris Gym on the campus of Philadelphia Textile (Philadelphia University). On February 1, 1998, they returned "home" for the first game at the Hayman Center, a 67-55 loss to Virginia Tech, which was preceded by the annual alumnae game.

In the eight-plus seasons that the Women have played at Tom Gola Arena, the Explorers have played 108 games and have a 62-46 record, a winning percentage of 57%. They have had six winning seasons, which includes a season-best of 10-3 in the 2003-04 season, and three seasons in which they went 9-5 (2000-01, 2002-03, and 2004-05).

The Explorers have played many memorable games in the building, but none match the excitement on February 4, 2005, when the women ended a 24-year drought – 24 straight losses – by defeating the George Washington Colonials, 65-53.

As far as points scored in Tom Gola Arena, no woman comes close to the 44 points put up by Rasual Butler on February 23, 2002 against Rhode Island, but Jill Marano does hold the women's mark with 30 points versus Richmond on January 23, 2003. Five women have scored 29 points against the Explorers, which includes Noelia Gomez (George Washington) on January 28, 1999; Kristeena Alexander (George Washington) on December 11, 1999; Hilary Goodrich (Rhode Island) on January 13, 2002; Tonya Rhodes (Rhode Island) on January 29, 2004; and Rachel Laws (Binghamton) on December 11, 2004.

MARC MULLEN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS/WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CONTACT

Marc Mullen enters his second season as the Assistant Director of Athletic Communications at La Salle University, after serving two years at the school as the Athletic Communications Assistant. Mullen is the primary contact for the women's basketball team, as well as the women's soccer and baseball teams and men's and women's crew. He also serves as the liaison with the Compliance and the Ticket Offices and is the primary supervisor of the Athletic Communication student workers.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant Director in August 2005, Mullen worked as a communications assistant in the office. In that time, he was the primary contact for the men's and women's cross country and track teams, the men's and women's swimming teams, and the softball team. He was also the secondary contact for both the men's basketball and football teams.

Before coming to La Salle, Mullen worked for the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club in the Media Relations and Customer Service Offices. The two seasons Mullen spent with the Pirates, included the final season at Three Rivers Stadium and the inaugural season in PNC Park. His duties included all aspects of publicity for the Pirates and managing the press box area.

While in Pittsburgh, Mullen also attended Duquesne University, earning his Masters' Degree in Corporate Communications in 2001. He got his start in the field as a student worker in Bloomsburg University's Sports Information Office, while working towards Bachelor's Degrees in Mass Communications and Political Science.

Mullen resides in Philadelphia with his wife Amber and daughter Caitlyn.

KALE BEERS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS/VOICE OF THE EXPLORERS

Kale Beers is in his sixth full year as the Director of Athletic Communications for Explorer Athletics. The voice of Explorer basketball for the past ten seasons, Beers is the longest tenured play-by-play man in the Big 5 and only the great Dan Baker (Drexel/former Big 5 Radio Network) has called more city series games.

When the Explorers defeated American University on December 28, 2004, it marked Beers' 200th broadcast of La Salle men's basketball. Ironically, American was also the Explorers' opponent for Beers' first broadcast on the La Salle Basketball Radio Network (LRN) in 1996. Since then he has called close to 400 Explorer events including men's and women's basketball and football.

Beers took over the Athletic Communications office in January of 2002 after serving in various capacities in each of the past eleven years including the Director of Corporate Sales/Broadcasting. In this position, he was responsible for the Department's Corporate Partnership program and coordination of the La Salle Basketball Radio Network, which he helped form in 1996.

Beers is also an adjunct instructor in the University's Department of Communication. He is in his sixth year as an instructor of Public Speaking (Comm 150). Beers has also begun work on his Masters in Business Administration at the University.

A 1995 maxima cum laude graduate of La Salle's Department of Communication, Beers is currently working in his 13th season in professional and collegiate sports. His career began as a junior at La Salle when he secured an internship with the Philadelphia Phillies. He would continue to work in the Phillies' Video Services Department through the 1996 season and has since built an exceptional resume as a play-by-play broadcaster for the minor league affiliates of the Phillies, Cleveland Indians, Pittsburgh Pirates, Anaheim Angels, and the Kansas City Royals.

The summer of 2006 saw Beers call 20 Reading Phillies and was a fill-in as play-by-play for the WBNA's Phoenix Mercury when they played the New York Liberty at Madison Square Garden on the Mercury Radio Network.

He has worked two NCAA Men's Basketball Regional Finals (Austin, TX—2005/Washington, DC—2006) and the NCAA Men's Basketball Opening Rounds in Philadelphia in 2006.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors Association (Co-SIDA), East Coast Association of Colleges Sports Information Directors Association (ECAC-SIDA) and the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

Beers, 35, was born in Emmaus, PA, and is a veteran of the U.S. Army, in which he served six years (two in active duty) as a Cavalry Scout.

STEVE DEGLER

COLOR ANALYST/PLAY-BY-PLAY

Steve Degler joined La Salle for the 1997-1998 season of Explorer basketball and now enters his tenth season as the color analyst on the La Salle Basketball Radio Network. Degler has also been the voice of the Reading Phillies for the past 14 seasons.

Along with his work with the Reading Phillies, Degler has also worked for 12 years as radio/TV broadcaster and public address announcer for football and basketball at Kutztown University. Degler has been involved for eight years as radio and TV broadcaster for high school and college soccer, football, and basketball games in Philadelphia, Berks, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties, calling numerous district and state tournament contests, including five state championship games.

He also has called dozens of Reading Phillies games throughout the Mid-Atlantic region on the CN8 television network.

A 1988 graduate of Kutztown University, with a Bachelor of Science in Telecommunications, he and his wife, Karen, and his daughters Sarah and Hannah reside in Hamburg, PA. Degler also handles play-by-play duties for a selected number of LRN broadcasts.

THE LRN UNDERGRADUATE PRODUCTION ASSISTANT

Since its inception over 10 years ago, the La Salle Radio Network has cultivated a strong relationship with the Communication Department and developed an informal apprentice-like program. Past LRN Undergraduate Assistants include:

DJ Deeney

Paul Goldhammer

Tim McCaffrey

Al Lee

Mike Garafolo

Wally Faulkner

Matt Kirsch

EXPLORERS ON TV

College Sports Television (CSTV) has become the official media partner of the Atlantic 10 and owns the rights to all Atlantic 10 contests and member home games. CSTV will offer college basketball fans a substantial selection of Atlantic 10 and Explorer games.

In addition to producing Atlantic 10 telecasts for all member schools, CSTV will soon become the on-line web provider for all Atlantic 10 member schools, including La Salle. Upon the conversion, live streaming accessibility to Explorer home games and audio/video features will be available.

THE LA SALLE BASKETBALL RADIO NETWORK

Born in 1997, LRN affiliates have broadcast close to 400 Explorer basketball games in, and back, to Philadelphia as well as the world via the internet.

This year, in concert with the Atlantic 10 Conference's partnership with College Sports Television (CSTV), plans are underway to stream live audio and full-scaled video coverage on a refurbished and new-look GoExplorers.com through CSTV Online.
